FEW people realize the danger of neglecting their shade trees until disease and decay have placed them beyond treatment. In cities this is impossible, hence artificial aid must be rendered to offset this and regain vitality. Our tree expert can impart you this knowledge. Tree surgery is no longer an experiment, but a science. We with our experts will not only prescribe surgical aid necessary for your trees, but the proper root treatment for best physical condition of soil, for maximum growth and luxurious foliage, keeping this well in mind, "remove the cause to effect a cure." ernment Ranks, Spells Doom of Coalition—OldTime Toryism Is Gone.

(By HORATIO BOTTOMLY, M. P., Editor of John Bull.)
London, Dec. 5.—Unless something very like a miracle happens soon the Coalition will fail to pieces and the king will be looking for a new prince minister. Even on the government minister will respect their independence in the division. It is not for nothing that I have so often spoken of Mr. Lloyd George as the wonderful wizard from Wales. He has exceptional talents for what his friends call "negotiation" and his enemies "intrigue." And within the last week or two there have been a government of the coalition deathbed in the gold of the coalition deathbed, let me point to one or two possibilities that may stave off the final crisis.

It is may be taken as certain that in the days ahead the prime minister will rely less than formerly upon his ant, who en several matters of gradient will rely less than formerly upon his ant, who en several matters of gradient will rely less than formerly upon his summoned to his councils, and, at the same time, to see an understanding with labor.
